FORCIBLE AMPUTATION OF QUEUES ABANDONED

[Associated Press.] PEKING, China.—At the suggestion of foreign advisers to the government the forcible amputation of queues has been abandoned. The ministry of the interior had issued instructions to the police of Peking to cut off forcibly the queues of rickshaw coolies. The police were armed with scissors and proceeded to fulfill instructions. The rickshaw coolies banded together and in several instances resisted and injured one or two policemen.

Two of the foreign advisers to President Yuan Shih-kai pointed out to prominent Chinese officials of modern education that this action was unwarranted on the part of the ministry and was distinctly contrary to the ideas held in foreign countries of the rights of a citizen of a republic. The Chinese officials argued that the queue was a badge of servitude. The advisers replied that it may have been such to men who had read history and understood that the Manchu had introduced the style, but that to the coolie the queue was a recognized custom of hair dressing and nothing more. The short hair was a foreign, strange fashion which he had been taught, up to a few years ago, to despise.

The steamer Ran arrived at New York from Philadelphia with two fishermen picked up from a drifting boat fifteen miles off the coast.

MUSSELMANS ARE CARED FOR IN RELIGIOUS PLAN

[Associated Press.] PARIS, France.—The government, in arranging facilities for the religious services of the sects in the army, as previously announced, did not forget the Musselmans. For the fete Al Louch or Feast of the Lamb, which fell on Saturday, October 31, the military authorities arranged for the installation of provisional mosques wherever practicable. At each place a live sheep was provided for the rites where it was possible, and when no live animal was available a quarter of mutton was furnished. A great many wounded Africans in Havre and Saint Brieuc were thus able to celebrate the great Musselman fete as usual. After the ablutions, the faithful knelt barefoot, according to the rites, on carpets spread in schoolhouses or in the courtyards of buildings, wherever premises were available, and after long prayers returned to the hospitals where the fete continued with the participation of those whose condition prevented them from leaving their beds.
